GLENDALÉ COUNCILMEMBER DAVID GOULET
COMPLETES HISPANIC LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – Glendale Councilman David Goulet recently completed a Hispanic leadership program at Arizona State University.

The 18-week Valle del Sol's Hispanic Leadership Institute serves as an educational and networking resource for expertise and advocacy on leadership issues affecting Latino communities, as well as promotes the individual development of Hispanics in leadership roles.

Some of the topics covered in the program were cultural and personal identity, community issues, leadership self-assessment, public and media relations skills, meetings and protocols.

"Attending the Hispanic Leadership Institute was a great opportunity for me to discuss a variety of issues with a group of talented and energetic professionals who have and will continue to make positive contributions in the Valley," said Goulet. "I really enjoyed the experience of being a part of this outstanding program."

Goulet, who represents the city's Ocotillo District, has been a member of the Glendale City Council since 1998. He also serves on the city's Government Services Committee and is a member of the Finance, Administration and Intergovernmental Relations Police Committee for the National League of Cities.
